Western Electric Workers Agree To End 65-Day Strike

Agreement, Calling for 18.2 Per Cent Pay
Boost, Is Ratified

17,000 IN 21 PLANTS
WILL RETURN TO JOBS

Union President Says Employees Will Be Ordered Back Monday

NEW YORK, March 8 (AP)—The sixty-five-day strike against the Western Electric Company by the Western Electric Employees' Association (independent) was settled tonight, union and company officials announced.

In Jersey City, Frank J. Fitzsimmons, WEEA president, said the agreement was ratified unanimously at a meeting of 5,500 union members in Jersey City Garden.

The strike covered 17,000 workers in twenty-one plants in New York city and Northern New Jersey.
The WEEA is an affiliate of the National Federation of Telephone Workers, which earlier this week concluded an agreement in Washington averting a nationwide telephone strike. Western Electric is the manufacturing unit of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company.

18.2 Per Cent Increase Fitzsimmons said the agreement called for an 18.2 per cent (about 17.5 cents an hour) wage increase. The union originally asked thirty per cent and the company's first offer was fifteen per cent.

Fitzsimmons said employees would be ordered to return to work Monday, but that plant and maintenance men would be called back tomorrow or Sunday to prepare the plants for work.

The largest of the plants is in Kearny, N. J.

Fitzsimmons said the membership rejected a company proposal offering vacation pay now to workers who want to stay on the job during the coming summer.

The WEEA president termed the agreement a "fine settlement."

Frank J. Hammel, company labor relations manager, said the final contract would be signed on Monday. It will be for one year, union officials said.

Security Clause Eliminated
The three issues which had held up settlement until tonight covered wages, maintenance of membership and company security.

Fitzsimmons declared the security clause was eliminated; the pay increase was made effective for all workers, including starting employees; and the maintenance of membership demand was compromised to allow beginners fifteen days to join the union after which dues would be deducted from pay envelopes.

Fitzsimmons said he would ask Joseph A. Beirne, NFWT president, to resume plans for a nationwide telephone strike unless an agreement was reached tonight.

Fruitless Session Is Held by GM and UAW

DETROIT, March 8 (AP)—General Motors Corporation and the UAW Union Auto Workers held another fruitless negotiating session today as President Truman said in Washington he would not intervene in the costly 108-day-old strike.

"We didn't make any progress today, but we started out once more on discussion of the things in dispute," declared Federal Mediator James F. Deway as he emerged from an hour-long meeting with company and union officials.

Upsetting predictions they would recess for the weekend, the negotiators scheduled another session
Saturday (10:30 a. m.) and Harry
B. Coen, GM director of labor relations, declared, "We have to work straight through on this one."

By ARTHUR EDSON

WASHINGTON, March 8 (AP)—
Not a congressman could be found today who would volunteer to take the place of a goat in the atom bombing experiment on ships.

"Why should we be the goats?"
seems to size up their reactions.

"Good Goats are scarcer than good congressmen," cried the Association in its Jacksonville, Fla., meeting. In view of that, it hinted, congressmen would make excellent substitutes.

Rep. Bill Stevenson (R-Wis.) told a reporter he isn't at all interested in saving the life of a goat. And furthermore, he said, he's getting tired of "indiscriminate criticism of Congress."

President Asks
$4,600,000,000
In Navy Budget

Chief Executive Raises Sights on His Estimates of January

WASHINGTON, March 8 (AP)—
Raising the sights on his estimates of January, President Truman asked Congress today to give the navy $4.
600,000,000 for the fiscal year starting July 1.

The budget includes $275,000,000 for new planes to be delivered in 1946 and $277,000,000 to keep research and development at about its present level.

It calls for 500,000 enlisted men in the navy and 100,000 men in the marine corps, on the average over the year.

In his budget message in January, the president put down $4.
500,000,000 for the navy and coast guard, which reverted to its peacetime status as part of the Treasury department after the war, and said the details would be sent to Congress later.

On Monday, he recommended $134,000,000 for the coast guard.

In his message today he asked for $3,725,000,000 in appropriations for the navy plus authority for it to contract additional expenditures.

His statement noted that "new authority to obligate under the present recommendations for the navy and coast guard is about $234,000,000 above the amount" proposed in January.

Price Controls Get Attention

WASHINGTON, March 8 (AP)—
Price controls, and particularly those on farm products, came in for extensive attention in congress today.

1. Chairman Thomas (D-Ola.) of the Senate Agriculture Committee announced his group will recommend the OPA of authority to set price ceilings for farm commodities.

2. He also announced he will try to attach a provision for raising parity prices to the bill raising minimum wages due to come before the Senate next week.

3. The House debated a bill providing some $1,000,000,000 for the agriculture department for the next fiscal year but did not reach a final vote.

4. The House committee heard James A. Carey, secretary treasurer of the CIO, and Mayor William O'Dwyer of New York testify in behalf of a year's extension of the OPA. Carey declared that a "pressure group conglomeration of congressmen" is "harrying" OPA to reduce its effectiveness. O'Dwyer said continued price control, and subsidies too, were needed to hold down food costs.

Eight Crew Members
Die in Superfort Crash

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., March 8 (AP)—Eight members of a B-29 crew based at Kirtland field were killed and two others are missing in a plane crash sixty miles southwest of here yesterday. Col. P. M.
Holmington, field commandant, announced today.

He said rescue squads were still at the scene. Names of the crewmen were withheld pending notification of relatives.

"We have been notified that eight of the bodies have been recovered," Col. Holmington said. "It is feared that the other two members of the crew not now accounted for may be found in the forward part of the ship, which has to be lifted by cranes."

Holmington said a rancher saw the big ship crash about 1 p. m. yesterday and traveled thirty-five miles to reach a telephone. The plane had left the field about 9:30
a. m.

"If these goat people don't like some congressman, let them name names," said Stevenson.

"Maybe they don't like Sen. Bilbo or maybe they don't like Rep. John Rankin (both Mississippi Democrats). Or maybe they don't like Bill Stevenson."

"Let them speak up and say so.
But it isn't fair to libel all of Congress. The joke's gone far enough."

Rep. William Lemke (R-ND) was mentioned as a possible volunteer for the atom bombing by several congressmen, who didn't want to offend any goats in their district and hence asked that their names not be used.

They said Lemke, who has sponsored an anti-vivisection bill, probably is the House's No. 1 animal lover.

Lemke said he appreciated the honor, but declined to go.

Edwin Pauley's Withdrawal Is Still a Question

Will-He, Won't-He Merry-Go-Round Stops on Note That He Will

WASHINGTON, March 8 (AP)—
The will-he, won't-he merry-go-round on Edwin W. Pauley's withdrawal went round and round today and stopped on the note that he will.

At first Pauley's opponents on the Senate Navy committee declared he had backed down on an informal agreement to withdraw as nominee for undersecretary of the navy.

Sen. Tobey (R-NH) told reporters it was "a grand double-cross—magna cum laude."

But later there was a conference of committee members in the office of Chairman Walsh (D-Mass.) which produced reports that the withdrawal agreement was on again.

Tobey said he was "not satisfied" with the results but Sen. Brewster (R-Me.) expressed "hopes" that the matter will be settled next week.

"No Real Man Quits under Fire"
Before this conference, Pauley, California oil man and former Democratic national treasurer, went back to the witness chair to declare:

"No real man quits under fire—no honest man withdraws when he knows he's right."

He served notice he would have his California attorney fly here before Tuesday to help him explain a royalty settlement with the state for oil drained from state lands.

"I have not made up my mind to withdraw. I have been considering withdrawing, just as I have been considering going ahead. But I am still in there fighting."

Pauley told a reporter after the hearing that he would "not even consider the possibility of withdrawing until he answers 'every charge.'"

Confusion was evident not only among Pauley's enemies, but among some of President Truman's lieutenants.

Reported Plan Is Upset

The report in both of those quarters yesterday was that the play was cut and dried: Pauley was to be given an opportunity to present his side of the case and clear away the charges that have been made against him.

But something upset that reported plan between the time that Pauley was called and Sen. Tydings (D-Md.) yesterday and the start of today's session.

Two senators claimed Mr. Truman had stepped in and asked that any withdrawal move be delayed until next week, to give time for preparation of a White House statement.

Mr. Truman named no names.
But reporters thought it obvious that he referred to the General Motors strike, for one, for the first question asked him was whether he would intervene in that dispute.

The chief executive said firmly that he will not.

The president began by announcing a fact-finding board for the railroad wage dispute—former Associate Justice Lief Erickson, of the Montana Supreme Court, Frank M.
Swacker, New York lawyer, and Gordon S. Watkins, of the economics department of the University of California. This will put off for thirty to sixty days the walkout called for Monday by the Brotherhoods of Engineers and Trainmen.

Then Mr. Truman said he wanted to call attention to two wage settlements—those in the rubber and the telephone industries.

They were settled strictly by collective bargaining, he remarked, without any ballyhoo or unnecessary conversation.

There have been hundreds of similar cases, he went on, but no notice has been taken of them. He thought it too bad that the people who do the right thing, as he put it, cannot get as much notice as those who run to the newspapers for it.

After discussing the General Motors strike, and expressing the view that it should be settled for the nineteen and one-half cent hourly wage increase which his fact-finding board recommended, Mr. Truman was asked about the steel fabricators.

The president emphasized that his recent statement did not constitute any administration commitment, either to the fabricators or the union.

Cardinal Glennon's
Condition Is Unchanged

DUBLIN, Saturday, March 8 (AP)—
The condition of John Cardinal Glennon, of St. Louis, suffering from congestion of the lungs, was reported unchanged at 2:45 a. m. today (9:45 p. m. Eastern Standard Time, Friday).

The 83-year-old prelate, who is staying at the home of Eire President Sean O'Kelly, lapsed into a semi-comatose state last night, and his secretary, John F. Cody, said "anything can be expected."

Churchill and Eisenhower Almost Get Unscheduled Ride in Ancient Carriage

WILLIAMSBURG, Va., March 8
(AP)—Winston Churchill and Gen.
Dwight Eisenhower narrowly escaped injury today when two frightened white horses harnessed to an ancient open coach in which they were seated bucked and plunged and threatened to run away.

The potentially grave accident forced cancellation of a scheduled horse-drawn tour of this age school capital of old Virginia, and gave the sponsors of the Churchill-Eisenhower trip here a severe case of grade A jitters.

Outside the rebuilt, picturesque and beautiful "palace" remodeled after the home of the colonial governor in the 72-year-old wartime prime minister and the United States Army chief of staff climbed aboard the flimsy, horse-drawn coach.

Suddenly, photographers' flash-bulbs startled the horses drawing the coach. As the horses reared, women screamed and state policemen shouted. Negro coachmen, in ancient trappings, struggled to quiet the frightened animals.

FAMILY QUARREL ENDS IN TRAGEDY

IT WAS A FAMILIAR family drama. The daughter wanted to choose her boy friends. The father protested the late hours she was keeping.
Then the story took a grimly tragic turn. For here, according to officials, Evelyn Warnock, 19, Pittsburgh, Pa., is sobbing out to Lt. Peter Connors, of the homicide squad, the story of how she shot and killed her policeman father with his own pistol. She said he choked her.

OPA Authorizes Cotton Textile Price Increase

WASHINGTON, March 8 (AP)—
The government tonight authorized higher prices for cotton textiles in a move designed to increase production of scarce clothing.

OPA said the upward adjustments for textile mills will mean higher retail prices for shirts, shorts and pajamas, dresses and work clothing.

The agency announced no new retail prices but an OPA spokesman said the cost of shirts and dresses will go up ten to fifteen cents. Retail prices for shorts will be increased seven or eight cents, he added.

In Boston, President Russell T.
Fisher, of the National Cotton Manufacturers' Association, said it would be "impossible to tell without studying the order how much relief has been given but early press reports indicate that the increases given are too small to accomplish their purpose."

At a cheering joint session of the Virginia Legislature, Churchill reminded the lawmakers of Britain's tenacity in the dark days when she stood alone against Axis aggression, and stressed the potency of the American arsenal "for the friends of freedom."

He linked these two factors in a tribute to the wartime fighting unity of Anglo-American troops and, upon that base, asserted that "we must find the means and the method of working together not only in time of war and mortal anguish, but in times of peace with all of its bewilderment and clamor of tongue."

That was as near as he came to renewal of his four-day-old appeal for a British-American military alliance. Not once did he mention directly either Russia or communism, central themes in his address Tuesday at Fulton, Mo.

Settle Wage Dispute

BALTIMORE, March 8 (AP)—Albert Atallah, state supervisor of the United Steel Workers of America, today announced settlement of a wage dispute between the United Steel Workers (CIO) and the National Steel Company, where 850 workers had been on strike since January 21.

When Bodenschatz, confidante of Goering, referred to the "suffering" of Hitler and Goering at reports of bomb damage inside Germany, Goering inquired what reaction they showed at similar reports from Warsaw, Rotterdam and Coventry.

"Warsaw was a fortress in the hands of the Polish army," said Bodenschatz, obviously "distracted." Goering said a place where many simple parts were manufactured.

Goering nodded approvingly.
When Goering frowned, the witness became hesitant and appeared confused by Jackson's questions.

Bodenschatz, nervously flexing his bomb-scarred hands, said he was almost blown off in the 1944 assassination attempt against Hitler, declared Goering had argued for peace from Munich to the eve of the Soviet invasion.

He said Goering held a meeting on German soil near the German border in August, 1939, with "six or eight Englishmen in the English government," at which Goering declared he favored survival of the British empire, pledged his influence to keep the peace, and asked his listeners to do the same in London.

Churchill Says U. S., Britain Must Stand Together

By ALEX H. SINGLETON

RICHMOND, Va., March 8 (AP)— Winston Churchill cautioned today that peace cannot be preserved by casting aside "the panoply of warlike strength."

He appealed anew for a "union of hearts" among the English-speaking peoples based upon conviction and common ideals.

Here, in a state rich in the history of the nation since the years before the American rebellion joined England's rule, Britain's war-time prime minister cried out:

"We should stand together. We should stand together in malice to none, in greed for nothing, but in defense of those causes which we hold dear—not only for our own benefit, but because we believe they mean the honor and the happiness of long generations of men."

At a cheering joint session of the Virginia Legislature, Churchill reminded the lawmakers of Britain's tenacity in the dark days when she

Witness Declares
Hermann Goering
Argued for Peace

By WES LAGGHER

NUERNBERG, March 8 (AP)—Hermann Goering opened his defense against war crimes charges today, leading off for the twenty-two ranking Nazi defendants. Chief United States Prosecutor Robert H. Jackson repeatedly stabbed at Bodenschatz's testimony in cross-examination.

When Bodenschatz, confidante of Goering, referred to the "suffering"

Western Electric Workers Agree To End 65-Day Strike

Agreement, Calling for 18.2 Per Cent Pay Boost, Is Ratified

17,000 IN 21 PLANTS WILL RETURN TO JOBS

Union President Says Employees Will Be Ordered Back Monday

NEW YORK, March 8 (AP)—The sixty-five-day strike against the Western Electric Company by the Western Electric Employees' Association (independent) was settled tonight, union and company officials announced.

In Jersey City, Frank J. Fitzsimmons, WEEA president, said the agreement was ratified unanimously at a meeting of 5,500 union members in Jersey City Garden.

The strike covered 17,000 workers in twenty-one plants in New York city and Northern New Jersey.

The WEEA is an affiliate of the National Federation of Telephone Workers, which earlier this week concluded an agreement in Washington averting a nationwide telephone strike.

Western Electric is the manufacturing unit of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company.

18.2 Per Cent Increase
Fitzsimmons said the agreement called for an 18.2 per cent (about 17.5 cents an hour) wage increase. The union originally asked thirty per cent and the company's first offer was fifteen per cent.

Fitzsimmons said employees would be ordered to return to work Monday, but that plant and maintenance men would be called back tomorrow or Sunday to prepare the plants for work.

The largest of the plants is in Kearny, N. J.

Fitzsimmons said the membership rejected a company proposal offering vacation pay now to workers who want to stay on the job during the coming summer.

The WEEA president termed the agreement a "fine settlement."

Frank J. Hammer, company labor relations manager, said the final contract would be signed on Monday. It will be for one year, union officials said.

Security Clause Eliminated
The three issues which had held up settlement until tonight covered wages, maintenance of membership and company security.

Fitzsimmons declared the security clause was eliminated; the pay increase was made effective for all workers, including starting employees; and the maintenance of membership demand was compromised to allow beginners fifteen days to join the union after which dues would be deducted from pay envelopes.

Fitzsimmons had said he would ask Joseph A. Beirne, NPTW president, to resume plans for a nationwide telephone strike unless an agreement was reached tonight.

Fruitless Session Is Held by GM and UAW

DETROIT, March 8 (AP)—General Motors Corporation and the CIO-United Auto Workers held another fruitless negotiating session today as President Truman said in Washington he would not intervene in the costly 108-day-old strike.

"We didn't make any progress today, but we started out once more on discussion of the things in dispute," declared Federal Mediator James P. Dewey as he emerged from an hour-long meeting with company and union officials.

Upsetting predictions they would recess for the weekend, the negotiators scheduled another session Saturday (10:30 a. m.) and Harry B. Cohn, GM director of labor relations, declared, "We have to work straight through on this one."

President Asks $4,600,000,000 In Navy Budget

Chief Executive Raises Sights on His Estimates of January

WASHINGTON, March 8 (AP)—Raising the sights on his estimates of January, President Truman asked Congress today to give the navy $4,600,000,000 for the fiscal year starting July 1.

The budget includes $275,000,000 for new planes to be delivered in 1946 and $227,000,000 to keep research and development at about its present level.

It calls for 500,000 enlisted men in the navy and 100,000 men in the marine corps, on the average over the year.

In his budget message in January, the president put down $4,500,000,000 for the navy and coast guard, which reverted to its peace-time status as part of the Treasury department after the war, and said the details would be sent to Congress later.

On Monday he recommended $134,000,000 for the coast guard. In his message today he asked for $3,725,000,000 in appropriations for the navy plus authority for it to contract additional expenditures.

His statement noted that "net new authority to obligate under the present recommendations for the navy and coast guard is about $234,000,000 above the amount" proposed in January.

Price Controls Get Attention
WASHINGTON, March 8 (AP)—Price controls, and particularly those on farm products, came in for extensive attention in Congress today.

1. Chairman Thomas (D-Okla.) of the senate agriculture committee announced his group will consider whether to strip OPA of authority to set price ceilings for farm commodities.

2. He also announced he will try to attach a provision for higher parity prices to the bill raising minimum wages due to come before the senate next week.

3. The house debated a bill providing some $1,000,000,000 for the agriculture department for the next fiscal year but did not reach a final vote.

4. The house committee heard James B. Carey, secretary treasurer of the CIO, and Mayor William O'Dwyer of New York testify in behalf of a year's extension of the OPA. Carey declared that "pressure group conglomeration of congressmen" is "harrying" OPA to reduce its effectiveness. O'Dwyer said continued price control, and subsidies too, "we needed to hold down food costs."

Eight Crew Members Die in Superfort Crash

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., March 8 (AP)—Eight members of a B-29 crew based at Kirtland field were killed and two others are missing in a plane crash sixty miles southwest of here yesterday, Col. P. M. Holsington, field commandant, announced today.

He said rescue squads were still at the scene. Names of the crewmen were withheld pending notification of relatives.

"We have been notified that eight of the bodies have been recovered," Col. Holsington said. "It is feared that the other two members of the crew not now accounted for may be found in the forward part of the ship, which has to be lifted by cranes."

Holsington said a rancher saw the big ship crash about 1 p. m. yesterday and traveled thirty-five miles to reach a telephone. The plane had left the field about 9:30 a. m.

"If these goat people don't like some congressman, let them name names," said Stevenson.

"Maybe they don't like Sen. Bilbo or maybe they don't like Rep. John Rankin (both Mississippi Democrats). Or maybe they don't like Bill Stevenson."

"Let them speak up and say so. But it isn't fair to libel all of Congress. The joke's gone far enough."

Rep. William Lemke (R-ND) was mentioned as a possible volunteer for the atom bombing by several congressmen, who didn't want to offend any goats in their district and hence asked that their names not be used.

They said Lemke, who has sponsored an anti-vice-sectional bill, probably is the House's No. 1 animal lover.

Edwin Pauley's Withdrawal Is Still a Question

Will-He, Won't-He Merry-Go-Round Stops on Note That He Will

WASHINGTON, March 8 (AP)—The will-he, won't-he merry-go-round on Edwin W. Pauley's withdrawal from the navy and coast guard nomination stopped on the note that he will.

At first Pauley's opponents on the Senate Naval committee declared he had backed down on an informal agreement to withdraw as nominee for undersecretary of the navy.

Sen. Tobey (R-NH) told reporters it was "a grand double-cross—magna cum laude."

But later there was a conference of committee members in the office of Chairman Walsh (D-Mass) which produced reports that the withdrawal agreement was on again.

Tobey said he was "not satisfied" with the results but Sen. Brewster (R-Me) expressed "hopes" that the matter will be settled next week.

"No Real Man Quits Under Fire"
Before this conference, Pauley, California oil man and former Democratic national treasurer, went back to the witness chair to declare:

"No real man quits under fire—no honest man withdraws when he knows he's right."

He served notice he would have his California attorney fly here before Tuesday to help him explain a royalty settlement with the state for oil drained from state lands.

Then he told a reporter: "I have not made up my mind to withdraw. I have been considering withdrawing, just as I have been considering going ahead. But I am still in there fighting."

Pauley said a reporter after the hearing that he would "not even consider" the possibility of withdrawing until he answers "every charge."

Confusion was evident not only among Pauley's enemies, but among some of President Truman's lieutenants.

Reported Plan Is Upset
The report in both of those quarters yesterday was that the play was cut and dried: Pauley was to be given an opportunity to present his side of the case and clear away the charges that had been made by his opponents. Then the committee on Saturday was to issue a statement certifying as to his good character, and Pauley was to get out in the interest of party harmony.

But something upset that reported plan between the time that Pauley met with Walsh and Sen. Tydings (D-Md) yesterday and the start of today's session.

Two senators claimed Mr. Truman had stepped in and asked that any withdrawal move be delayed until next week, to give time for preparation of a White House statement.

His comment was the more emphatic in that it came in a volunteer statement at his news conference rather than in response to questions.

Mr. Truman named no names. But reporters thought it obvious that he referred to the General Motors strike, for one, for the first question asked him was whether he would intervene in that dispute. The chief executive said firmly that he will not.

The president began by announcing a fact-finding board for the railroad wage dispute—former Associate Justice Leif Erickson, of the Montana Supreme Court, Frank M. Swacker, New York lawyer, and Gordon S. Watkins, of the economics department of the University of California. This will put off for thirty to sixty days the walkout of Monday by the Brotherhoods of Locomotives and Trainmen.

Then Mr. Truman said he wanted to call attention to two wage settlements—those in the rubber and the telephone industries.

They were settled strictly by collective bargaining, he remarked, without any ballyhoo or unnecessary conversation.

There have been hundreds of similar cases, he went on, but no notice has been taken of them. He thought it too bad that the people who do the right thing, as he put it, cannot get as much notice as those who run to the newspapers for it.

After discussing the General Motors strike, and expressing the view that it should be settled for the nineteen and one-half cent hourly wage increase which his fact-finding board recommended, Mr. Truman was asked about the steel fabricators.

The president emphasized that his recent statement did not constitute any administration commitment, either to the fabricators or the union.

FAMILY QUARREL ENDS IN TRAGEDY

IT WAS A FAMILIAR family drama. The daughter wanted to choose her boy friends. The father protested the late hours she was keeping. Then the story took a grimly tragic turn. For here, according to officials, Evelyn Warnock, 19, Pittsburgh, Pa., is sobbing out to Lt. Peter Connors, of the homicide squad, the story of how she shot and killed her policeman father with his own pistol. She said he choked her.

OPA Authorizes Cotton Textile Price Increase

WASHINGTON, March 8 (AP)—The government tonight authorized higher prices for cotton textiles in a move designed to increase production of scarce clothing.

OPA said the upward adjustments for textile mills will mean higher retail prices for shirts, shorts and pajamas, dresses and work clothing.

The agency announced no new retail prices but an OPA spokesman said the cost of shirts and dresses will go up ten to fifteen cents. Retail prices for shorts will be increased seven or eight cents, he added.

In Boston, President Russell T. Fisher, of the National Cotton Manufacturers' Association, said it "was impossible to tell without studying the order how much relief has been given but early press reports indicate that the increases given are too small to accomplish their purpose."

OPA said the new program should encourage output of clothing in lower price lines and thus make it unnecessary for the public to buy expensive garments because no others are available.

In a companion move, the Civilian Production Administration ordered mill operators to shift a large number of looms to production of fabrics required for inexpensive garments.

The total price increase to mills was estimated by OPA at approximately $50,000,000. The agency added that in terms of one standard fabric—class A print cloth—the combined increases will raise the price from fifty-three to about sixty-one cents a pound.

Cardinal Glennon's Condition Is Unchanged

DUBLIN, Saturday, March 9 (AP)—The condition of John Cardinal Glennon, of St. Louis, suffering from congestion of the lungs, was reported unchanged at 2:45 a. m. today (9:45 p. m. Eastern Standard Time, Friday).

The 83-year-old prelate, who is staying at the home of Eire President Sean O'Kelly, lapsed into a semi-comatose state last night, said his secretary, John P. Cody, said "anything can be expected."

Churchill and Eisenhower Almost Get Unscheduled Ride in Ancient Carriage

WILLIAMSBURG, Va., March 8 (AP)—Winston Churchill and Dwight Eisenhower narrowly escaped injury today when two frightened white horses harnessed to an ancient open coach in which they were seated bucked and plunged and threatened to run away.

The potentially-grave accident forced cancellation of a scheduled house-drawn tour of this age colonial capital of old Virginia, and gave the sponsors of the Churchill-Eisenhower trip here a severe case of grade A jitters.

Outside the rebuilt, picturesque and beautiful "palace" remodeled after the home of the colonial governor—the 72-year-old wartime prime minister and the United States Army chief of staff climbed aboard the filmy, horse-drawn coach.

Suddenly, photographers' flashbulbs startled the horses drawing the coach. As the horses reared, women screamed and state policemen shouted. Negro coachmen, in ancient trappings, struggled to quiet the frightened animals.

Amid a hectic scene of confusion and commotion, Churchill settled his hat a bit firmer on his head and took a deep puff on his long black cigar. Eisenhower reached over to grasp his elbow. Part of the harness snapped.

But perhaps the calmest woman in the crowd was Mrs. Churchill. As one member of her party protested "gracious, to think that they had to come through the war to face this," she turned to say quietly to the coachman:

Churchill Says U. S., Britain Must Stand Together

By ALEX H. SINGLETON
RICHMOND, Va., March 8 (AP)—Winston Churchill cautioned today that peace cannot be preserved by casting aside "the panoply of warlike strength."

He appealed anew for a "union of hearts" among the English-speaking peoples based upon conviction and common ideals.

Here, in a state rich in the history of the nation since the years before the American rebellion against England's rule, Britain's war-time prime minister cried out:

"We should stand together. We should stand together in malice to none, in greed for nothing, but in defense of those causes which we hold dear—not only for our own benefit, but because we believe they mean the honor and the happiness of long generations of men."

At a cheering joint session of the Virginia Legislature, Churchill reminded the lawmakers of Britain's tenacity in the dark days when she stood alone against Axis aggression, and stressed the potency of the American arsenal "for the friends of freedom."

He linked these two factors in a tribute to the wartime fighting unity of Anglo-American troops and upon that base asserted that "we must find the means and the method of working together not only in time of war and mortal anguish, but in times of peace with all of its bewilderment and clamor of tongue."

That was as near as he came to reinforcement of his four-day-old appeal for a British-American military alliance. Not once did he mention directly either Russia or communism, central themes in his address Tuesday at Fulton, Mo.

Settle Wage Dispute

BALTIMORE, March 8 (AP)—Albert Atallah, state supervisor of the United Steel workers of America, today announced settlement of a wage dispute between the United Steel Workers (CIO) and the National Can Company, where 850 workers had been on strike since January 21.

When Bodenschatz, confidante of Goering, referred to the "suffering" of Hitler and Goering at reports of bomb damage inside Germany, Jackson acidly inquired what reaction they showed at similar reports from Warsaw, Rotterdam and Coventry.

"Warsaw was a fortress in the hands of the Polish army," said Bodenschatz, obviously distraught. "Coventry was a place where many airplane parts were manufactured."

Goering nodded approvingly. When Goering frowned, the witness became hesitant and appeared confused by Jackson's questions.

Bodenschatz, nervously flexing his bomb-scarred hands which were almost blown off in the 1944 assassination attempt against Hitler, declared Goering had argued for peace from Munich to the eve of the Soviet invasion.

He said Goering held a meeting on German soil near the Danish border in August, 1939, with "six or eight Englishmen in the English government," at which Goering declared he favored survival of the British empire, pledged his influence to keep the peace, and asked his listeners to do the same in London.

Jury Terms Pickets' Deaths "Homicide"

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., March 8 (AP)—A coroner's jury reported late today that two pickets slain February 6 at Griderly, Ill., "came to their deaths as a result of an affray with four guards of the Toledo, Peoria and Western railroad and pickets."

The jury, after two hours deliberation, termed the fatal shootings "homicide" and recommended further investigation of the fracas on the strike-bound railroad.

Soviet Declares Statement Does Not Conform to Pact

Truman Predicts Moscow Will Go Along with UNO

President Declines To Comment on Churchill Alliance Proposal

WASHINGTON, March 8 (AP)—President Truman said today he believes Russia will go along with the United Nations.

He said he will talk when the time comes about the question of an Anglo-American military alliance and whether the British-American combined chiefs of staff should continue their joint planning after the war is officially ended.

Mr. Truman gave reporters at his news conference the impression that he merely was avoiding a commitment on the British points and had no definite plans for considering an alliance or a permanent combined chiefs of staff at some future time.

Says UNO Won't Collapse
In fact, the president said he did not wish to comment at all on Winston Churchill's proposal for a virtual alliance. He discovered having endorsed, by his mere presence on the same stage, the speech at Fulton, Mo., Tuesday, in which Britain's former prime minister urged a continuing close military link between his own country and the United States.

In answering a barrage of questions on foreign affairs, the chief executive declared firmly that the United Nations would not collapse regardless of the course Russia pursues in Iran.

The United States, in a formal note, has called on Russia to pull all her troops out of Iran immediately in keeping with terms of the Tehran agreement.

Asked whether he had any plans in the event Russia did not withdraw, the president replied that this would be handled when it comes up.

No Big Three Parley in View
The news conference brought from the president the additional points on foreign relations.

1. The question of handing over to Russia the Turkish provinces of Kars and Ardahan did not come up at the Big Three conference at Potsdam.

2. Another Big Three meeting in the immediate future is unlikely, but anyone who wants to can come to Washington to see the president.

3. The White House is not commenting on criticism of an American-British-French call for the ousting of the Franco government as dangerous interference in the internal affairs of Spain.

Coal Operators To Oppose NLRB Ruling on Foremen

WASHINGTON, March 8 (AP)—Soft coal operators decided today to continue opposition to John L. Lewis' demand for organization of foremen, despite a National Labor Relations Board ruling that they are eligible for full union membership.

The operators' sixty-man policy committee so instructed its negotiations committee, which starts contract bargaining with Lewis' United Mine Workers here next Tuesday.

Earlier the National Coal Association issued a statement indicating the operators would seek a Supreme court decision on the NLRB ruling that foremen can join a union affiliated with a production workers' organization and be eligible for collective bargaining under the Wagner Labor Relations act.

International Monetary Session Is Launched amid Uncertainties

By STERLING F. GREEN
SAVANNAH, Ga., March 8 (AP)—The international monetary conference opened in flag-decked Savannah today amid indications that several dollar-starved nations might seek loans from the new international bank before this, its brief two-week inaugural session, closes.

High United States delegates said they expected that the Netherlands, France, Czechoslovakia and China, along with one or more Balkan states, might bid for loans shortly after the bank's executive committee is organized next week.

From Latin-American delegations, meanwhile, came hints that the American republics would fight for equal treatment in borrowing for the development of industries, along with the war-shattered European nations which need funds for reconstruction.

Peru intends to seek a loan as soon as possible, said former Peruvian Finance Minister Carlos Monferrer Bernales, and will strive to see that "South American countries

U. S. Advanced New Conditions for Entering Government, Reds Say

COMMUNICATION WAS MADE "UNILATERALLY"

Moscow Asserts Bulgarian Opposition Is Being "Incited" To Act

LONDON, March 8 (AP)—The Moscow radio tonight quoted the Russian government as asserting the United States "impels" the opposition to the Bulgarian government "to sabotage" the decision on Bulgaria made at the Big Three foreign ministers' conference in Moscow last December.

It was agreed at the foreign ministers' meeting that the United States and Great Britain would recognize Bulgaria if that government were broadened to include two members of the opposition.

Tonight's Soviet broadcast, recorded here by the Soviet monitor, said Russia's charge, contained in a note presented to the State department in Washington yesterday, declared that a United States aide memoir to Bulgaria, dated February 22, "infringes the Moscow decision of the three ministers."

Message Was Sent Feb. 22
Foreign Commissar V. M. Molotov of Russia, British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin and Secretary of State James F. Byrnes, when they met at Moscow, the Soviet note said, agreed that two members of the Bulgarian opposition would be selected for the cabinet on the two conditions that they could "really represent the groups of parties not participating in the government" and should "really be suitable and work loyally with the government."

The United States communication sent to Bulgaria on February 22 suggested that "the Bulgarian government and opposition should be asked to find a mutually-acceptable basis for the participation in the Bulgarian government of two members who would really represent the opposition parties," the Soviet note declared.

The American statement to Bulgaria, the Soviet note said, "does not conform to the decision reached in Moscow on Bulgaria, since the Moscow conference decision says nothing about the opposition representative joining the Bulgarian government on the basis of any 'mutually-acceptable condition.'"

"Unilateral" Statement
"The fact should also be mentioned," the broadcast quoted the Soviet note as saying, "that the above-mentioned statement of the government of the United States was made unilaterally and without any attempt at prior agreement on this step with the other interested parties that participated in the taking of the decision on Bulgaria."

The note charged also the radio said, that the United States political representative in Bulgaria, Maynard Barnes, "is systematically inciting the Bulgarian oppositionists to act, not on the basis of the decision of the Moscow conference, but on the basis of advancing new conditions for entering the Bulgarian government not provided by the Moscow conference."

(The United States State Department disclosed on March 4 that it had sent a message to Bulgaria recommending the inclusion of two "opposition" leaders in the government of Premier Kimon Georgiev.)

(The United States has not granted diplomatic recognition to the Soviet-sponsored Georgiev regime, contending it is not broadly representative of all democratic elements in that country.)

generally have as high priority generally European countries.

A Chilean spokesman said it would be "indiscreet" to discuss borrowing intentions so early in the meeting, but he added:

"It should be recognized that the needs of small countries in this respect are limitless."

The first meeting of the two world economic institutions revised at Bretton Woods—the international monetary fund and the international bank for reconstruction and development—opened auspiciously with a tumultuous welcome from thousands of seething Jack Savannahians.

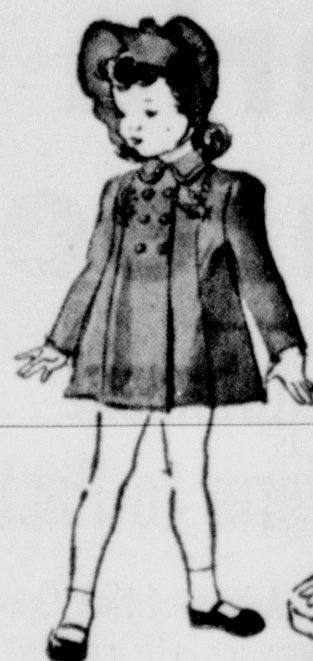

Thirty-four member countries will be represented with a thirty-fifth, Yugoslavia—a member of both bank and fund—unaccountably absent but expected to turn up. Eight countries sent observers.

At least two more nations are likely to apply for full membership in the bank and fund at this meeting. It developed—Nacuragua and El Salvador. Already Denmark and Panama have signified this intention.

Prevention the Answer To the Smoke Problem

IT IS GOOD to see increased interest in smoke control and the co-operative efforts to attain it here by two leading industries. Programs to effect it are being pushed in a number of the large industrial cities and what is done therein can be of aid in helping solve the local problem.

The aim is not only improved health but concrete and substantial financial saving. Adoption of proper control which can eventually become elimination—would save American cities and towns and even rural communities millions of dollars annually, according to Dr. Summer B. Ely, head of the Pittsburgh Bureau of Smoke Prevention. Smoke is, and has always been, waste. It is evidence of faulty combustion. "Smoke should never be formed. If combustion is correct it will not be," Dr. Ely said the other day in addressing the Pittsburgh division of the Coal Technology section of the American Chemical Society. The problem is yet to be solved, but science is hopeful, not only for the big manufacturing plants but for the home heating system.

Not only is smoke wasteful. It pollutes the atmosphere, destroys property, spreads disease. "Actually smoke decreases prosperity," said Dr. Ely. That smoke is injurious to vegetation is established by the bare hillsides overlooking coke plants. It isn't the heat from the coke ovens that is the problem emanating therefrom. So, too, with the blast furnace stacks. They pour injurious "smoke" over cities like Pittsburgh. Health authorities blame it for numerous ills. If smoke is once formed, scientists say it is almost impossible to burn it. The solution is prevention.

Futility and Fumbling Make Consumers Wait

REPORT OF John D. Small, civilian production administrator, that industrial production is down to the lowest level in five years, and will shrink further before it improves, is an official warning that the consumer has a long wait ahead of him before his wants are filled. Length of the wait will depend upon whether strikes are settled and upon whether industry is granted what Small calls fair and equitable prices. If the OPA tries to squeeze industry down to no profits or to actual losses, production will continue to suffer.

The best guess seems to be that current strikes and threatened strikes will be cleared away in a short time and that ceiling revisions will assure industry of profitable operations. Those things accomplished, America will go ahead in its accustomed manner and the flow of production will begin to fill retail channels. It is confidently expected by many industrialists that production will be in full swing by the end of this year and that 1947 will be the first full year of prosperity.

In the meantime consumers will have no alternative but to continue to wait for goods because there has been fumbling in industrial relations and because government policies have acted as a brake on enterprise in many ways.

England has had a similar experience. When Churchill promised 100,000 houses in the first year after Germany's defeat, laborers called that chicken feed. The Labor government has succeeded in building a mere 1,500 houses. There, as here, it is the same story of bureaucratic futility and of penalizing the men who know how to do the job.

And Now We Have A Biscuit Crisis

OCCASIONALLY one hears of housewives who have stirred up and baked biscuits for their husbands every morning for two or three decades. Such devotion to duty is inspiring in an era when most people take the short cuts that are most conducive to personal comfort. In recognition of a man's liking for hot bread, many commercial food vendors have adopted the practice of providing biscuits ready mixed for the consumer. All housewife has to do is take 'em out of a can and pop 'em in an oven. It is almost as convenient as taking the wrapper off a loaf of bread and putting it on the table.

But trouble may be looming for wives who are willing to continue catering to their menfolk's taste for hot bread but who would regret having to go to the trouble of making their own. Makers of biscuits ready for the oven say that maintaining production is going to be a whole of a job in view of the government's eighty per cent flour extraction order. They will be compelled to revise their baking formulas so that dark flour biscuits will taste and look as well as those made from white flour.

It is a momentous issue. It will be unfair to the little woman if dark flour biscuits do not meet with the approval of her husband and mother. And the bureaucrats had better look out. The American housewife can trace the blame for a condition to its source. If an epidemic of breakfast table complaints breaks out, the bureaucrats may rue the day they thought that eighty per cent flour extraction idea was a good one.

A 65-year-old farmer at Terre Hill, Pa., refuses to serve as burgess, to which position he was elected without opposition, because if he did he would "have to make two many people mad." A fair reason, but perhaps there was another better one—the job pays nothing.

Apathetic and Pathetic

(Editorial in "The Wall Street Journal")

CONCERNING Premier Stalin's Russia and its international conduct, there are a great many puzzling aspects. To the most puzzling is not rooted in Russia. It grows in America. It can be expressed in the form of a question: Why should anybody expect Stalin to do anything different than he is doing? If at all surprised at all is due, it is in the fact that Stalin, being what he is and having the opportunity that he has, should be even as moderate as he has been.

The opportunity is that a ruthless man believing in the law of force has no opposition. And he has none because the only nation in the world around which could rally "a decent respect to the opinions of mankind" is losing its faith. It is becoming ashamed of the United States. The light of freedom for the individual which has heartened men for a century and a half flickers and burns low in a fetid atmosphere from which the sustaining oxygen has been drained.

Try this if you will. Go into any group—the most prosperous and fashionable the better the test—and speak of the "self-evident truth" that "all men are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness." Say to this group that "to secure these rights governments are instituted among men."

We venture that you will be startled by the number of people, particularly younger people who do not know that you are quoting the Declaration of Independence. And of those who know, a large number will not agree with the philosophy expressed. And of those who agree—and this is the most tragic thing—many will not have the courage to say so.

Perhaps the dominant attitude was summed up by a young man who would probably think of himself as an "intellectual." He said: "Only a few people in the Bible Belt believe these things now. Or listen to the young minister of the Gospel who came to this office sneering at those who 'operate in a vacuum of idealism.'"

We gave our government encouragement—it did not need much—to co-operate with Stalin. In the criminal decision of Yalta an American president accepted secret agreements which bartered thousands of human beings and which, if carried out, will send thousands more to exile and death.

But that and a chorus of writers and commentators defaulted their obligation to ask questions and said that Yalta was good. They said Stalin was a man of his word. He would not grab territory. He would not suppress the churches. He would give the decency to acknowledge every corner of the world. He would not use his military power to force on other peoples his own social and political system. Each of those things he has done. Some illusionists, who said he would not, now have the decency to acknowledge disillusion. They suggest that we shake an admonitory finger at Stalin.

That is a ludicrous suggestion. Does anyone imagine that Stalin is so fool that he thinks we can or will oppose his armed might with ours? And if we are not ready to do that, what other means of opposition have we? We have none, for we besmirched our own moral precepts, and stand grotesquely naked. Yet we tell other peoples of the world how they must act. We have abandoned the tradition that peoples have the right to work out their own destiny.

We denounce a Col. Peron of Argentina as a dictator and a bad man suspected of aggression and therefore he must not rule that unhappy republic. He certainly is those things. But who is the United States to denounce the man that the people of his country apparently have chosen in a free election and to condemn any other government for co-operating with dictators? The fact is that Col. Peron helped himself to power by borrowing more than one page from the book of the New Deal.

But Col. Peron and Gen. Franco, another unsavory character ruling Spain, are, we say, corrupt.

ONE THING WELL DONE

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

Recently a noted writer died, after having written something like 150 books. Written in a light vein, dealing with slick characters, and appealing to those wishing a boost to their unexciting lives, they undoubtedly served a purpose, though I seldom read any of them. They will be read 25 years from now, or even ten.

The growth of solid merit is strange, yet strong. No one but the author of a book of this sort, ever worries about its permanence. No one ever pushed through a crowd to buy any of the world's single book classics! Many of the authors of such had to die before a second edition appeared! Wait Whitman wrote his own advertisements for "Leaves of Grass," and did his hand at setting the type. Also, he gave away many a copy that his recipient never read. One noted New Englander threw it into the fire, under the name of "Leaves of Grass" is one of the world's great books—the lot of a lifetime of improvement.

How few there are who have read much less have heard of, the books of Darwin, other than "The Origin of Species." Victor Hugo was a great and prolific writer, a crowd of his stands alone, and sets him apart—"Les Misérables." The same is true of John Bunyan and his "Pilgrim's Progress" and Cervantes with his "Don Quixote." The list of the world's great books is multiplied into scores of like examples.

One thing well done, lives. It can't be dodged. People stop to look upon it. It has significance. It creates thought. It inspires example. The Muse of History even takes note, and the world, large in time, gives its applause. It is not worth while, therefore, to do at least one fine thing daily, early, or in a total lifetime. If it's big enough, and useful enough, one thing well done in a lifetime is quite sufficient. If Edison had done nothing else but invent the electric light, it would still have made both significant and enduring.

The job of erecting the Pyramids was stupendous, but what good are they? Napoleon used them to inspire his soldiers to military victory, but that victory only meant the killing of human beings and the satisfaction of selfish ambition. The woman who gave her last, and only mite, did a greater act!

By The George Matthew Adams Service

Furthermore, they suppress the rights of the people. They poison the wells of free information. They certainly do those things. Let us see what government it is that hurls these accusations of corruption and extra-legal sanctions. It is a government where the family and the friends of a President could use their prestige to enrich themselves and those who publicly protested are denounced. It is a government against which, for the first time in American history, Americans fear to speak. It is a government which is spending the people's money on a bureaucracy with which men abhor contact because resistance means reprisals.

The system has the expected results. Many business men feel that they must have a friend at court and so some who have official access are paid as "advisers." There was a time when we called such men lobbyists and investigated them. Now they are appointed to high office.

Looking at our record of compliance with dictators and looking at our domestic scene, is it any wonder that the people of Argentina decided that Col. Peron might be the lesser of two evils?

And while we condemn the dictators for suppressing and distorting the free flow of information, our own State department proposes a plan to blanket the world with propaganda.

Why should Stalin take us and our pious protestations seriously? Why should he give us any attention at all? He knows what is happening and he knows that we are treading the path to his philosophy and his orbit. He thinks he has only to wait—and he may be right.

We have told the world about four freedoms but the number of men who live under the heel of dictatorship is greater, not less. We have not stood for freedom. We are in the thick of the game of power politics. We are in it in Europe and in Asia and we have imported it to the American continent. It is Stalin's game and of course we do it badly.

There are men not afraid to speak out. One is John Foster Dulles who dares speak and knows whereof he speaks. We quote:

"I am afraid we've got very few friends in the world today. There was a time when we had more friends than any other people of the world. Today we have influence because of our production capacity, because people are trying to get the physical things we produce. I don't detect any real friendship on the part of other peoples. This leaves us in a dangerous and vulnerable position; one which we should do our utmost to correct."

A man's standing in his community is a projection of his own character. A nation's standing in the world is a projection of its domestic life.

What we see at home is a condition where public trust is openly accepted as an avenue to private gain; where a government is so steeped in propaganda lies that it must give the wrong reasons for its policies; where in the name of freedom the citizen is being hand-cuffed to Russia by a troupe of brilliant pygmies who write the prescription for a fuller life on an addiction machine; where debt is prosperity and thrift a social crime; where it can be asserted that there exists a "moral right" to steal and bribe; where men shout about free enterprise and then seek better and bigger government subsidies; where women leaving black markets stop to sign petitions for continuation of price control; where groups demand "When do we get ours?" no longer whisper but shout and where officials no longer consider it necessary to conceal that they are the creatures of these groups.

Is it any wonder that in our international relations we cannot combat the assertion that black is white and that the goal of human freedom is the slave state? Is it any wonder that Mr. Dulles laments the lack of those policies, "expressive of the righteous faith of the best in America?" We are apathetic. We are rapidly growing pathetic.

Action Is Suggested

By J. E. Brown

Editor The Cumberland News:

Your picture of the president at the throttle in your paper today is very interesting isn't it? If he really wants a thrill instead of publicity I would suggest he go to Thomas, W. Va., and ride a Western Maryland coal train of 100 cars to West Virginia Junction, a distance of fifty-five miles, zero weather and train covered with snow and ice, then he will realize just what railroad men are doing daily.

I wonder some time if the pictures and publicity were cut out for a short period and apply a little action instead some of our unsolved problems could not be worked out to a better advantage to all concerned.

Churchill's Alliance Idea Comes Several Years Too Late, Reminiscences Show

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON, Mar. 8.—Winston Churchill's magnetic voice coming over the air waves from London, Mo., touched off interesting reminiscences on the part of insiders who had sat with Churchill and FDR during dark war days.

The reminiscences pertained to how Churchill's Anglo-American alliance worked out when he was at the head of the British empire and in a position to make it work. Here are some of the reminiscences:

Churchill on Hongkong: When FDR and Winston arrived in Cairo in 1943, they discovered that no one had remembered to meet Chiang Kai-shek at the airport. This was not Roosevelt's or Churchill's fault, because they were overtaken by the British. But Roosevelt, wanting to make amends for the oversight, called on Chiang at his home and told him of ambitious American plans to reopen the Burma road and send supplies to China.

Next day, however, Churchill vetoed the Burma road—much to Chiang Kai-shek's chagrin. Roosevelt, wanting to compensate for this, later proposed that the British return Hongkong to China, and that China then turn it over to the United Nations as a free port for all the world to use. Chiang Kai-shek glowed with pleasure. But Churchill gloomed.

"I was made Prime Minister of England," he said, "to liquidate the British empire."

After that, it took all Roosevelt's persuasive charm to keep Chiang from bolting the Cairo conference.

Note:—The British still keep Hongkong, but even the Labor government has made any move to restore it.

Churchill on Second Front: At Casablanca in 1943, the question of a cross-Channel invasion of France was discussed by Roosevelt and Churchill. The U. S. General Staff wanted it. The British didn't.

Finally, Churchill said that if a second front was undertaken, the British army could supply only thirty per cent of the invasion force, saddling the American army with seventy per cent of the burden.

"We cannot squander the seed of the empire," Churchill argued. The man who most vigorously opposed the prime minister regarding this was Gen. Al Wedemeyer, then head of the general staff's War Plans division. He maintained that a 30-70 troop ratio would mean that no second front could be started for at least one year and that the war would be prolonged unnecessarily. It would take a least a year to transport the required U. S. troops across the Atlantic, Wedemeyer argued, whereas the British already had a sizeable army in England which could be used for a second front if they would go in on a ratio of 50-50.

Churchill, however, stood pat. He was very irate with Gen. Wedemeyer, however, and later suggested to FDR that Lord Louis Mountbatten needed an expert liaison officer for his campaign in India. He specifically asked that Wedemeyer be attached to Mountbatten.

Wedemeyer had spent several years in Germany, knew German tactics, did not know the Far East. Despite that, Churchill got him transferred to India.

The second front was started a year and a half later with a ratio of seventy per cent American troops to thirty per cent British.

Churchill on India: When William Phillips, special ambassador to India, gave Roosevelt an urgent warning that trouble was due in India unless the British promised dominion status immediately, FDR finally sat down with Churchill to talk it over.

But the prime minister wanted no answer from anyone—not even an ally. Pounding on the desk, he insisted that no one knew how to handle India except the British. "Blood will flow," he shouted, if there is American interference.

Churchill on the Mediterranean: At Casablanca, Churchill got a promise from Roosevelt that the Mediterranean theatre was to be British-dominated. Churchill then went to Turkey and made a public statement to that effect.

After that all telegrams from American personnel to other American personnel in the Eastern Mediterranean had to be sent over British radio channels, in British codes and scrutinized by British officials. All American personnel flying into Greece had to travel on British planes and be cleared by the British. All American lend-lease had to have American labels scratched off and be relabeled with "British deliveries."

Much of the subsequent trouble in Greece, in the opinion of Roosevelt advisers, resulted from this off-hand promise wrung from FDR by Churchill.

Capital Chaff: Democrats were wrangling last week about the right of Chicago's Representative Sabath to be heard as much as Mississippi's Representative John Rankin. Meanwhile, GOP Leader Joe Martin went on to demand Mike Monroney, of Oklahoma, and said: "Mike, the next time you Democrats get into a scrap like this and it comes to a vote, we're just going to vote 'present' and let you Democrats fight it out yourselves." Atlanta's new congresswoman, Mrs. Helen Douglas Mankin, has been assiduously cultivated by the Georgia delegation—with long visits on the floor of the House even from the two Georgia senators—George and Russell. But the first chance she got she voted against Rankin. . . . North Carolina's Chairman Bob Doughton, of the House Ways and Means committee, not only believes that people should continue paying the wartime excess-tax rates on luxuries such as furs, but also that children should continue paying the wartime tax on movie tickets. "After all," says Doughton, "kids don't have to go to the movies—they're a luxury."

Churchill's Speech Is Seen as Timely Warning to Russia

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON, March 8.—Because Winston Churchill was so recently prime minister of Great Britain and spokesman of the Allied cause in the war, there is a tendency to forget that he speaks now only as a private citizen. The strategy of his address can only be understood by keeping that particular fact in mind.

For Mr. Churchill is too wise in world affairs to think that any person in an official post of major responsibility could discreetly propose a British-American alliance in the same speech which looks askance at Russia's expansionist tendencies and yet avoid making the Soviet regime suspicious of our faith in a United Nations Organization.

The former premier of Britain has always shown an inclination to advocate special alliances rather than collective security. His speech in that respect is not new but a reiteration of an oft-expressed conviction which, for a time, it looked as if he had persuaded the late President Roosevelt to share.

Another Motive Evident

But Mr. Churchill, knowing the American leaning toward collective security and our antipathy toward special alliances—and few persons abroad know the American thinking better than he—must have had some other purpose in bringing up the subject of an alliance at this time and coupling it with some pointed warnings about Communist "Fifth Columns" in various countries of the world, including direct controls over the weak governments of Eastern Europe which border Russia.

What could that motive or strategy be? Mr. Churchill has a right as a private citizen to map out his own strategy and to do his bit toward the mobilization of world opinion along the lines that he believes will make an enduring peace. One thing that Mr. Churchill realizes about world opinion is that his voice is listened to and his words are widely read and that the powerful instrument known as "moral force" gains added strength when a world-wide figure employs it with all the frankness and candor that a private citizen of his background can employ.

Facts, Not Views
Certain facts about Russia's infiltration in other countries had to be said and emphasized—and Mr. Churchill pointedly called them "facts" and not views. Certain pretensions by Russia had to be delineated. Mr. Churchill may not have been speaking to the government of the United States or to Great Britain at all. He may really have been speaking to Moscow, where not a word of his speech, significantly enough, was allowed to be printed in any newspaper or broadcast over any radio, but where the persons in high position undoubtedly read and re-read Russian translations.

For, viewed in this perspective, Mr. Churchill was merely reminding the Russian totalitarians that Britain and the United States twice stood together in war and that twice the United States came in reluctantly. He was pointing out, too, that in both instances Britain and the United States were driven together and were not previously united by any alliance or program of international policy. As plainly as he could say it, Mr. Churchill was arguing by the well-known methods of implicit statements that a pooling of American and British military and economic strength was not to be ignored if any nation started aggression or embarked on the courses that lead to eventual war.

Firmness Necessary Today

Mr. Churchill said World War II could have been prevented by proper action in 1935 and 1936. This can mean only that he thinks firmness today can prevent Russian from assuming that she can do as she pleases because Americans have begun to demobilize the army and navy and have become the victims of industrial strike and internal dissension, not a little of which in some quarters is already being blamed on Communist intrigue.

Mr. Churchill will be lambasted for some of his suggestions as likely to arouse Russian suspicions and to make her even more difficult to get along with. But Mr. Churchill, who knows something about the weaknesses of "appeasement" from his predecessor, Mr. Chamberlain, may ask his critics to forbear and see whether Moscow didn't try to understand the speech only too well when she decided to suppress it inside Russia.

LISTEN WORLD

By ELSIE ROBINSON
(Registered U.S. Patent Office)

YOUNG AMERICA HAS WHAT IT TAKES

I listen with secret amazement to the luscious discussions of pioneer days, lost frontiers, and the hardships endured and courage displayed by our worthy ancestors.

Said oratory invariably being in most unflattering comparison with our "degenerate times and spineless modern youth."

All of which gives me considerable food for thought. For it so happens that I was frontier born and bred and am still in that circulation today. So that like most of my generation I have had a first class chance to study both eras. And contrary to all popular legends, I do not believe that—

WE HAVE FEWER OR LESS COLORFUL FRONTIERS THAN IN 1846—

OR RARER OPPORTUNITIES FOR INDIVIDUAL ACHIEVEMENT—

OR FEWER HARDSHIPS TO FACE—

OR LESS SPUNK AND INITIATIVE WHEREWITH TO FACE THEM.

To the contrary, though things look slicker on the surface today, modern young America is tackling as rugged a program as any grandpa ever wrestled.

As for "lost frontiers," those deserts, abysses and mountain ranges which the covered wagoners crossed were kindergarten stuff compared with the moral, mental and physical hardships of the machine age.

THE BOMB THAT WIPED OUT HIROSHIMA CREATED MORE FRONTIERS IN FIVE SECONDS THAN THE WORLD HAD KNOWN HITHERTO IN ITS MANY AGES.

Whereupon we come to a comparison of "intestinal fortitude." At which point we are supposed to give our rising generation a slap on the wrist and dismiss them with a hearty snicker. This, I maintain, is not only stupid but downright libel.

We may no longer be forced to fight Indian braves or grizzly bears or pirates on the high seas. But we've managed to fill our ordinary daily existence chockablock full of hazards, menaces and assorted death traps of every description.

The youngster who sets out to win the world today needs generally displays as much courage, ingenuity and general go-gettem as was required by fifty pioneer grandpas.

Nor does this belittle the founding fathers. It simply places a little of the credit where it's due. In these blitz alarm days of juvenile delinquency we are apt to forget that the overwhelming majority of young people are decent, honest, ambitious, law respecting citizens with plenty of courage to sustain them in their battle with the most difficult, dangerous and completely bewildering era man has ever seen.

It takes a fistful to become a full size human in 1946. But, thank heaven, Young America has what it takes!

LISTEN WORLD

By ELSIE ROBINSON
(Registered U.S. Patent Office)

I listen with secret amazement to the lusty discussions of pioneer days, lost frontiers, and the hardships endured and courage displayed by our worthy ancestors.

Said oratory invariably being in most unflattering comparison with our "degenerate times and spineless modern youth." All of which gives me considerable food for thought. For it so happens that I was frontier born and bred and am still in that circulation today. So that like most of my generation I have had a first class chance to study both eras. And contrary to all popular legends, I do not believe that—

WE HAVE FEWER OR LESS COLORFUL FRONTIERS THAN IN 1846—

OR RARER OPPORTUNITIES FOR INDIVIDUAL ACHIEVEMENT—
OR FEWER HARDSHIPS TO FACE—
OR LESS SPUNK AND INITIATIVE WHEREWITH TO FACE THEM.

To the contrary, though things look slicker on the surface today, modern young America is tackling as rugged a program as any grandpa ever wrestled.

As for "lost frontiers," those deserts, abysses and mountain ranges which the covered wagoners crossed were kindergarten stuff compared with the moral, mental and physical hardships of the machine age.

THE BOMB THAT WIPED OUT HIROSHIMA CREATED MORE FRONTIERS IN FIVE SECONDS THAN THE WORLD HAD KNOWN HITHERTO IN ITS MANY AGES. Whereupon we come to a comparison of "intestinal fortitude." At which point we're supposed to give our rising generation a slap on the wrist and dismiss them with a hearty snicker. This, I maintain, is not only stupid but downright libel. We may no longer be forced to fight Indian braves or grizzly bears or pirates on the high seas. But we've managed to fill our ordinary daily existence chockablock full of

hazards, menaces and assorted death traps of every description.

The youngster who sets out to win the world today needs generally displays as much courage, ingenuity and general go-gettem as was required by fifty pioneer grandpops.

Nor does this belittle the founding fathers. It simply places a little of the credit where it's due. In these blitz alarm days of juvenile delinquency we are apt to forget that the overwhelming majority of young people are decent, honest, ambitious, law respecting citizens with plenty of courage to sustain them in their battle with the most difficult, dangerous and completely bewildering era man has ever seen. It takes a fistful to become a full size human in 1946. But, thank heaven, Young America has what it takes!

Before each dance, the facilities of Central YMCA, including swimming, pingpong and other recreation, will be open at 8 p. m. to those planning to attend the dance.

Book on China Is Reviewed for Club By Miss Walsh

A review of the book, "China in the Sun", by Randall Gould, was presented by Miss Mary G. Walsh, as the feature of the meeting of the Literary Group of the Woman's Civic club Thursday afternoon in the Cumberland library.

According to Miss Walsh, the book disproves the theory that the Chinese are a mysterious people. The author paints a vivid picture of the Chinese and interprets their manners and customs in a way that Americans can have better understanding of them.

In the course of the book the author contradicts numerous reports that have been circulated concerning the Chiang Kai-Shek, Chinese secret police and foreign advisors, Miss Walsh stated.

Book on China Is Reviewed for Club By Miss Walsh

A review of the book, "China in the Sun", by Randall Gould, was presented by Miss Mary G. Walsh, as the feature of the meeting of the Literary Group of the Woman's Civic club Thursday afternoon in the Cumberland library.

According to Miss Walsh, the book disproves the theory that the Chinese are a mysterious people. The author paints a vivid picture of the Chinese and interprets their manners and customs in a way that Americans can have better understanding of them.

In the course of the book the author contradicts numerous reports that have been circulated concerning the Chiang Kai-Shek, Chinese secret police and foreign advisors, Miss Walsh stated.

Army Uniforms May Be Returned To Quartermaster

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX
Famous Authority on Problems of Love and Marriage

Dear Miss Fairfax:
I understand if a discharged soldier does not wish to keep his uniform he may return it to the government. Is this true? My husband would like to turn in his outfit.

(MRS.) G.F.
When a soldier leaves the service he may want to keep his uniform for wear on ceremonial occasions. However, if he wants to return it for further use in military operations, he may take or express it to the nearest army post, camp or station. Put it in a container which, including the clothing, does not weigh more than thirty pounds and turn it over to the nearest railway express agency for collect shipment. Address the package to that army installation and mark it "Attention: Quartermaster, Clothing and Equipment Classification Officer."

Additional Courses In USAFI
Dear Miss Fairfax:
In reference to the United States Armed Forces Institute, is it necessary for an enrollee to pay $2 for each course following the first course taken?

SAILOR'S MOTHER.
The original enrollment fee of $2 entitles a serviceman to complete as many additional institute correspondence or self-teaching courses as he likes without further charge. When he has completed a course and wishes to take a new one, he simply fills out a new application and sends it to the institute or one of its branches.

Increased Pension
Dear Miss Fairfax:
At present I am receiving a pension due to disability incurred while in World War I. However, I do not think it is a sufficient amount, as

I am not able to do much work. How shall I appeal my case?

J.A.G.
Communicate with the manager of your nearest Veterans' Administration center. If you will send me a stamped envelope, I shall be glad to send you the name and address of your representative.

When Serviceman Re-enlists
Dear Miss Fairfax:
I am expecting to get my discharge from the army in a very short time, but will re-enlist at once. Will my family get an "initial family allowance" as they did when I was first inducted?

SOLDIER.
No. The family allowance already in effect will continue without interruption.

Insurance Premiums after Discharge
Dear Miss Fairfax:
When I receive my discharge from the service, will I be permitted to continue my national service life insurance, and if so, where must the premiums be paid?

SERGEANT M.
All persons honorably discharged from military or naval service have crease.

the right to continue their national service life insurance. Premiums must be paid within thirty-one days from the end of the period for which premiums were last paid. Forward your remittance to Collections Subdivision, Veterans' Administration, Washington 25, D. C. To insure continuous protection and avoid the possibility of lapse of insurance, make your payments as they become due, whether or not premium notices are received from the Veterans Administration.

Beatrice Fairfax Postwar Problems
If you're still in the armed services—and have a problem regarding insurance, allowances, allotments, maternity or infant care for wives and children, or desire the answer to any other service question, write to Beatrice Fairfax, care of this paper. If you wish a personal answer, please enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Army Uniforms May Be Returned To Quartermaster

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX
Famous Authority on Problems of Love and Marriage

Dear Miss Fairfax:
I understand if a discharged soldier does not wish to keep his uniform he may return it to the government. Is this true? My husband would like to turn in his outfit.

(MRS.) G.F.
When a soldier leaves the service he may want to keep his uniform for wear on ceremonial occasions. However, if he wants to return it for further use in military operations, he may take or express it to the nearest army post, camp or station. Put it in a container which, including the clothing, does not weigh more than thirty pounds and turn it over to the nearest railway express agency for collect shipment. Address the package to that army installation and mark it "Attention: Quartermaster, Clothing and Equipment Classification Officer."

Additional Courses in USAFI

Dear Miss Fairfax:
In reference to the United States Armed Forces Institute, is it necessary for an enrollee to pay $2 for each course following the first course taken?

SAILOR'S MOTHER.

The original enrollment fee of $2 entitles a serviceman to complete as many additional institute correspondence or self-teaching courses as he likes without further charge. When he has completed a course and wishes to take a new one, he simply fills out a new application and sends it to the institute or one of its branches.

Increased Pension

Dear Miss Fairfax:
At present I am receiving a pension due to disability incurred while in World War I. However, I do not think it is a sufficient amount, as

I am not able to do much work. How shall I appeal my case?

J.A.G.
Communicate with the manager of your nearest Veterans' Administration center. If you will send me a stamped envelope, I shall be glad to send you the name and address of your representative.

When Serviceman Re-enlists

Dear Miss Fairfax:
I am expecting to get my discharge from the army in a very short time, but will re-enlist at once. Will my family get an "initial family allowance" as they did when I was first inducted?

SOLDIER.

No The family allowance already in effect will continue without interruption. Insurance Premiums after Discharge
Dear Miss Fairfax:
When I receive my discharge from the service, will I be permitted to continue my national service life insurance, and if so, where must the premiums be paid?

SERGEANT M.

All persons honorably discharged from military or naval service have the right to continue their national service life insurance. Premiums must be paid within thirty-one days from the end of the period for which premiums were last paid. Forward your remittance to Collection Subdivision, Veterans' Administration, Washington 25, D. C. To insure continuous protection and avoid the possibility of lapse of insurance, make your payments as they become due, whether or not premium notices are received from the Veterans Administration.

Election Will Be Held in Oakland Monday, March 11

By GEORGE H. HANST
OAKLAND, March 8 — A contest for the three positions on the city council is scheduled for next Monday, March 11, with four candidates on the municipal ticket, but the lone aspirant for mayor and city treasurer will win without effort unless there is a concentrated write-in campaign, a situation considered highly unlikely, according to city officials.

After serving as mayor of Oakland for sixteen years, the last ten consecutively, Lawrence M. Fraley is not a candidate for re-election. He has stated unofficially that he intends to be a Republican candidate for nomination for state senator. The only candidate for mayor is Alexander G. Hesen who is completing a term as a member of the city council.

Candidates for council are Parry L. Stemple and Earl Shartzer, who are completing two year terms. Ralph Pritts and Mrs. Margaret Nally Coffey, three are to be selected. Hold-over members are Dr. E. I. Baumgartner, Prentice DeBerry and Mason Glotfelty.

Richard L. Davis, who has been treasurer for a number of years is the only candidate for this position. Citizens have the right to write in a candidate of their own choice and to mark an "X" after the name. Polls are open at 9 a. m., and will remain open until 6 p. m. Miss Margaret Lawton and Miss Elizabeth West were named as clerks of election, while John W. Davis, Ernest Townsend and Mark Harry White were named as judges.

The records show that Mayor Fraley served as a member of the city council from 1918 to 1923, inclusive, being elected president in 1923; then served as mayor from 1924 to 1929, inclusive, and then again from 1936 to 1945, inclusive, a total of twenty years. During the six year interval Grover C. Stemple was mayor.

Explanation Is Made
Considerable confusion has arisen with regard to the payment of taxes on motor vehicles owned by residents of this county who received their motor vehicle licenses in Allegheny county, and as a result the county is losing some revenue, according to John W. Herman, president of the county commissioners.

Herman said the commissioners have learned that many of these applications, which should have come to this county for the insertion of amount of tax, were sent to Allegheny county, and as a result a number of motor vehicle owners who now wish to obtain their tags are uncertain as to where the applications and payments should be sent.

Both the county commissioners' office and that of the county treasurer, J. Edward Helbig, have received inquiries about the matter.

According to E. Ray Jones, attorney to the commissioners, taxes on all motor vehicles owned by residents of this county should be paid to the Garrett county treasurer or to the commissioner of motor vehicles. Inasmuch as the county treasurer is equipped and authorized to issue tags the commissioners urge all residents of the county to send their applications and remittances to him. This, they said, would prevent further confusion and loss of taxes by the county.

Election Will Be Held in Oakland Monday, March 11

By GEORGE H. HANST

OAKLAND, March 8.—A contest for the three positions on the city council is scheduled for next Monday, March 11, with four candidates on the municipal ticket, but the lone aspirant for mayor and city treasurer will win without effort unless there is a concentrated write-in campaign, a situation considered highly unlikely, according to city officials.

After serving as mayor of Oakland for sixteen years, the last ten consecutively, Lawrence M. Fraley is not a candidate for re-election. He stated unofficially that he intends to be a Republican candidate for nomination for state senator. The only candidate for mayor is Alexander G. Hesen who is completing a term as a member of the city council.

Candidates for council are Harry L. Stemple and Earl Shartzer, who are completing two year terms, Ralph Pitts and Mrs. Margaret Nally Coffey. Three are to be selected. Hold-over members are Dr. E. I. Baumgartner, Prentice DeBerry and Mason Gladfelter.

Richard L. Davis, who has been treasurer for a number of years is the only candidate for this position. Citizens have the right to write in a candidate of their own choice and to mark an "X" after the name. Polls are open at 9 a. m., and will remain open until 6 p. m.

Mrs. Margaret Lawton and Miss Elizabeth West were named as clerks of election, while John W. Davis, Ernest Townsend and Mrs. Harry White were named as judges.

The records show that Mayor Fraley served as a member of the city council from 1918 to 1923, inclusive, being elected president in 1923; then served as mayor from 1924 to 1929, inclusive, and then again from 1936 to 1945, inclusive, a total of twenty years. During the six year interval Grover C. Stemple was mayor.

Explanation Is Made
Considerable confusion has arisen with regard to the payment of taxes on motor vehicles owned by residents of this county who received their mail through postoffices located in Allegany county, and as a result the county is losing revenue, according to John W. Herman, president of the county commissioners.

Herman said the commissioners have learned that many of these applications which should have come to this county for the insertion of amount of tax were sent to Allegany county, and as a result a number of motor vehicle owners who now wish to obtain their tags are uncertain as to where the applications and payments should be sent.

Both the county commissioners' office and that of the county treasurer, J. Edward Helbig, have received inquiries about the matter.

According to E. Ray Jones, attorney to the commissioners, taxes on all motor vehicles owned by residents of this county should be paid to the Garrett county treasurer or to the commissioner of motor vehicles. Inasmuch as the county treasurer is equipped and authorized to issue tags the commissioners urge all residents of the county to send their applications and remittances to him. This, they said, would prevent further confusion and loss of taxes by the county.

Marriage Is Announced
The wedding of Miss Leona Mae Dodge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Artie Dodge, of near Oakland, to Mr. Clarence T. Jones, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Alva K. Jones, of Red House, took place last Friday morning at 11 o'clock in St. John's Lutheran church at Red House. The bridegroom's father read the marriage service and the double ring ceremony was used. Miss Jane Berkebile played the wedding march.

The bride is a graduate of Oakland high school and completed her college work at Bridgewater, Va., in 1943. During the last three years she has been a member of the faculty of Oakland high school and expects to continue work in the department of science.

Jones served with the armed forces from September 10, 1941, until December 24, 1945, when he received an honorable discharge. He was instructor in tank mechanics at Fort Knox, Ky., for two years, after which he volunteered for overseas service with the Seventh Hundred Twenty-seventh amphibian transport battalion. He received the Victory medal, also four battle stars in connection with his service.

There's no place like Home!

This is Main Street, U.S.A.! America, 1946! Typical scene in every village or town... at every crossroad in these United States. He's back! Home again! Home, after long, lonely months of separation.

Father... son... brother... whoever he is... this is the long-awaited day... the day we all wondered... "would it ever come?"

And if there is a "let-down feeling" after the initial joy... stop and think how he's feeling. Sure, he's glad to be home. Wasn't that one of the things he was fighting for? But the future... what about that?

Remember your Red Cross was with him... on Leyte, at Iwo Jima, in Anzio... or was it Normandy? Wherever he was, the Red Cross was at his side when he needed it most.

That same down-to-earth friendly counsel and helping hand... that warm and human touch which helped him through his darkest days and months... will stay with him in 1946 and for as long as he needs it... if you help.

To whom can he turn for the advice he may sorely need? For assistance in filing his claim? The Red Cross has his answers. Where can he get the ready cash he may need to tide him over until his benefits start to come through? The local Red Cross—your Red Cross.

There's a Chapter in every community. Through it you can give him a strong shoulder to lean on... a steady hand to guide him. For it is your contribution that keeps the Red Cross at his side. Remember, you are the Red Cross—Give Now!

YOUR Red Cross MUST CARRY ON

There's no place like Home!

This is Main Street, U.S.A.! America, 1946! Typical scene in every village or town . . . at every crossroad in these United States. He's back! Home again! Home, after long, lonely months of separation.

Father . . . son . . . brother . . . whoever he is . . . this is the long-awaited day . . . the day we all wondered . . . "would it ever come?"

And if there is a "let-down feeling" after the initial joy . . . stop and think how he's feeling. Sure, he's glad to be home. Wasn't that one of the things he was fighting for? But the future . . . what about that?

Remember your Red Cross was with him . . . on Leyte, at Iwo Jima, in Anzio . . . or was it Normandy? Wherever he was, the Red Cross was at his side when he needed it most.

That same down-to-earth friendly counsel and helping hand . . . that warm and human touch which helped him through his darkest days and months . . . will stay with him in 1946 and for as long as he needs it . . . if you help.

To whom can he turn for the advice he may sorely need? For assistance in filing his claim? The Red Cross has his answers. Where can he get the ready cash he may need to tide him over until his benefits start to come through? The local Red Cross—your Red Cross.

There's a Chapter in every community. Through it you can give him a strong shoulder to lean on . . . a steady hand to guide him. For it is your contribution that keeps the Red Cross at his side. Remember, you are the Red Cross—Give Now!

Portrait of a Soul

Did you think a soul was invisible? Did you even suspect that it was a theological concept that only ministers could understand?

Well, look into this boy's eyes! Do you see happiness . . . the certainty that life is full of beauty and truth? Do you see hope . . . the assurance that every tomorrow will be better than every today? Do you see courage . . . the fortitude that will look through defeat to victory? Do you see faith . . . the confidence that God hears, and knows, and cares, and helps?

You're looking into a soul! You're seeing the spark of Himself which God has put into every one of us. And you're seeing it still unblemished by the cares and disappointments of life.

You can see a soul through your own child's eyes. But unless you give that soul a chance to grow up with the body and mind that possess it . . . soon you'll no longer see it in your child's eyes . . . and perhaps, someday, you'll no longer see it in his life.

The Church, through careful religious education, develops that spiritual inner-being which we call the soul. Your child deserves the advantage of the Church's instruction. And, in church worship, you will rediscover the beauty and strength of your own soul.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend and support the Church of his choice. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to Church on Sunday.

Keyser, Piedmont Reach Tourney Finals

Golden Tornado Beats Ridgeley By 44-27 Score

Piedmont Eliminates Elk Garden, 32-18; Winners Clash Tonight

KEYSER, W. Va., March 8 (AP)—Keyser and Piedmont won their way into the finals of the Region 4 Section 14, scholastic basketball tournament tonight by defeating Ridgeley and Elk Garden and will clash for the championship tomorrow night at 9 o'clock on the Potomac State school floor.

In Saturday night's third place contest Ridgeley will play Elk Garden at 7:30 o'clock.

Piedmont high's Lions disposed of a scrappy Elk Garden team in the first game of tonight's semi-final round by the score of 32 to 18. Elk Garden, although on the short end of a 15-7 count at the quarter and a 21-13 count at half time, showed plenty of fight. Coach Kalbaugh's team matched the Lions' point for point in the third period but was shut out in the final.

Quentin Sayers was high scorer for Piedmont with eleven points while Bill Mason topped the losers with eight markers.

750 See Keyser Win

Before a gathering of 750 persons, Keyser high school's Golden Tornado downed Ridgeley by the score of 44 to 27 in tonight's final contest. Bill Jones and Hal Newcome accounted for 27 points for Coach Clark's team which held the upper hand throughout. B. Comer and Blankenship scored seven points each to pace the Ridgeley scorers.

The winners scored 16 field goals and converted 12 of 21 free throws.

In the first round games this afternoon, Elk Garden took the measure of Fort Ashby, 33-23. Keyser swamped Capon Bridge, 44-10, and Ridgeley walloped Romney, 48-19.

Fort Ashby battled Elk Garden on even terms in the first half but weakened in the third period and was eliminated. Bill Murphy was the "big gun" for the Elks with six fielders and a total of 13 points.

Keyser added to the power of Capon Bridge, which has failed to win a game this season, by collecting 28 goals against the Hampshire counties. Coach Clark withdrew his first stringers after six minutes of play when the score reached 30-3. Keyser's five reserves, led by Emery and Hartman, who marked up 16 and 15 tallies, accounted for 44 tallies. One of the baskets credited to Capon Bridge was made accidentally by a Keyser player from scrimmage beneath the basket.

Comer Gets Ten Goals

With "Ace" Comer showing the way with twenty-one points, including ten field goals, Ridgeley's Blackhawk really defeated Romney's Vikings. Coach Seale's team piled up a 17-4 lead at the quarter and held the long end of a 38-12 count at the halfway mark.

Beall High Cagers Top Alumni, 33-32

FROSTBURG, March 8 (AP)—Playing before the largest crowd to witness a game here this season, Beall high school's basketball team tonight edged out a 33 to 32 decision over the Beall High Alumni floormen.

The grads held a 6-3 advantage at the quarter and were on top 15-13 at the half but the tide turned in favor of Coach Pinzel's team when the third quarter ended with the score standing 23-21.

However, made it a hair-raising finish before being nosed out.

Bob Nelson and Jim Crump were outstanding for the victors while Jim Brode and "Rock" Layman turned in nice games for the Alumni.

The victory enabled Beall to close its season with a 300 average—11 wins and 11 defeats.

Beall's Jayvees downed the Mt. Savage Shamrocks in a preliminary game, 31-13. Starkey garnered 13 points for the winners. Moran and Cunningham were Mt. Savage's best.

ATHLETIC IMPOTENCY Prompts Chicago To Quit Big Ten

CHICAGO, March 8 (AP)—The University of Chicago, a charter member and once a dominating power under Alonzo Amos Stagg, today withdrew from the 50-year-old Big Ten Conference because of athletic impotency.

Long expected, the withdrawal of the faded Maroons, whose halcyon past held seven undisputed conference football championships, equalled only by Minnesota's modern Gophers, paved the way for a possible new member.

The withdrawal was announced at a meeting of conference athletic directors by T. Nelson Metcalf, Chicago athletic director, but final action on the move awaits the spring meeting of the conference faculty representatives at Champaign, Ill., May 30-31. The Maroons will compete until the end of the school year.

Nelson and Bush Will Judge Pro Bouts Here March 18

Matchmaker "Vic" Ricker, of the Cumberland Athletic Club, which will revive professional boxing at the state armory, Monday, March 18, announced last night that Harry Nelson and Howard "Red" Bush will be the judges and "Bobby" Cavanaugh, official timer, for the five-bout program.

The Maryland State Athletic Commission is expected to name Ed Brockman, of Baltimore, as the referee for all matches on the card.

Sammy Adragna, Pittsburgh's classy welterweight, will tangle with Frankie Gillen, Negro, of Baltimore, in the ten-round main bout, and Mini Adragna, Pittsburgh featherweight, and brother of Sammy, will oppose Jimmy Rico, Cuban 126-pounder, of Baltimore, in the eight-round semi-final.

A six and two fours will round out the program of 32 rounds.

Leonard "Chick" Little is promoter of the show.

Rhode Island State Accepts Final Bid To Cage Tournament

NEW YORK, March 8 (AP)—Rhode Island State, a basketball machine that has averaged 78 points in each of its 20 contests this year, accepted the eighth and final bid to the 1946 national invitation tourney today.

The Rams, winner of 18 games, have competed in four of the previous tourneys and reached the semi-final round in 1945.

Other teams in the tourney, which is scheduled for March 14, 16, 18 and 20 in Madison Square Garden are Kentucky, St. John's of Brooklyn, Muhlenberg, Bowling Green, Arizona, Syracuse and West Virginia. The earnings will be announced Monday noon.

LaSalle Cagers Battle Altoona Here Tomorrow

Explorers Seek Revenge in Thirty-Sixth Game of Season

Coach Bill Keegan's LaSalle Explorers, who have established a new local record for total number of games played during a regular season, will write "finks" to their 1945-46 home schedule tomorrow when they do battle with Altoona Catholic high school, of Altoona, Pa., on SS, Peter and Paul court at 3 p. m.

Engaging in its thirty-sixth contest, LaSalle will be seeking revenge for a 44-35 setback suffered on the Pennsylvanians' court in the opener of the series.

After tomorrow's test LaSalle will make preparations for its entry into the Eastern States Catholic Invitational Tournament to be held at Newport, R. I., March 28, 29 and 30.

In reviewing the Explorers' record of the current campaign, which to date shows 23 wins and 12 losses, it is revealed that the Keegan-coached passers made a clean sweep of nine two-game series, split even in five series and dropped two games each in St. Mary's, of Clarksburg, a team that won 24 consecutive games, Allegany and Fort Hill. LaSalle won two games from Ridgeley, which held both AHS and Fort Hill on even terms.

The other loss was at Altoona.

Here's the record of the North Centre Street School to date:

For All Faiths

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our mother, Mrs. Georgia Ann Fries, who passed away March 9, 1945.

MOTHER
Oh, the memory of that morning
As I stood with aching heart,
To see the one I loved so dearly
From the forever part.
And the spirit ever loving
Hovers still around me here,
Everything and every place reminds me
Of a precious Mother dear.
But my lonely heart is still aching
For the face and smile I miss,
And I long for the dear Mother
Whom I never more shall kiss.

Sadly missed by her daughter,
MRS. PAULINE CAGE AND FAMILY

For All Faiths

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our mother, Mrs. Georgia Ann Fields, who passed away March 9, 1945.

MOTHER
Oh, the memory of that morning
As I stood with aching heart,
To see the one I loved so dearly
From the forever part.
And the spirit ever loving
Hovers still around me here,
Everything and every place reminds me
Of a precious Mother dear.
But my loving heart is still aching
For the face and smile I miss,
And I long for the dear Mother
Whom I never more shall kiss.

Sadly missed by her daughter,
MRS. PAULINE CARR AND FAMILY.

Water Officials, Rights of Youths Engineer Inspect Outlined in Talk Roanoke Pipe Line By Victor Heisey

Reinforced Concrete Pipe Approved as Best for Auxiliary Line Here

Reinforced concrete pipe now being manufactured and installed to provide an auxiliary water line from a reservoir near Roanoke, Va., to that city, is the best type of pipe which could be used in installing the proposed auxiliary water line from Lake Gordon to Cumberland, Water Commissioner William J. Edwards said yesterday.

Edwards returned yesterday afternoon from Roanoke, where he spent two days inspecting the manufacture and installation of the pipe. He was accompanied by Ralph L. Rizer, city engineer; William H. Marean, Rizer's assistant; and Charles J. Bruce, superintendent of the Evitts Creek Water Company.

After plans for the auxiliary line are completed by Rizer and bids are asked, the chief obstacle to starting the project will be the present "confused state" of the market for building materials, Edwards said.

Advantages Cited
The water commissioner said that 40,000 feet of thirty-six inch pipe are being installed in the Roanoke project, while 41,000 feet of the thirty-six inch pipe would be needed for the auxiliary water line here.

He asserted that the great advantage in using that type of pipe here is that it can be manufactured and installed "on the spot," and that all local labor would be used in the project, thus decreasing unemployment.

Edwards also said that necessary materials, including sand, cement and stone, could be obtained locally. Sixteen-foot lengths of pipe, each weighing four and a half tons, would be used.

The commissioner pointed out that the pipe is essentially the same type as that used in laying the main thirty-six inch water line from Lake Gordon to the city approximately twenty-five years ago. Modern improvements to the pipe have been made since that time, including an improved joint connecting length of pipe; increasing each length from 12 to 16 feet, making it possible to lay pipe more quickly; and increasing the strength of the pipe.

Total cost of the Roanoke project is estimated at $750,000, which has also been estimated as the cost of installing auxiliary water line here, Edwards said. He added that two enabling acts, one passed in the state legislature in 1941 and the other at a special legislative session last November, provide for the issuance of $750,000 in bonds to finance the local project.

The commissioner said virtually all of the rights of way needed for the auxiliary water line have been secured. When built, the line will come down the valley of the Evitts creek to the state line, and will roughly parallel Bedford road to the city. The main water line comes in to Nave's crossroad and roughly parallels the Baltimore pike to Cumberland.

Rizer To Handle Project
Although the Chicago engineering firm of Alvord, Burdick and Howson is handling the Roanoke project, Edwards said it is expected that no consulting engineers will be called in on the auxiliary line here. Rizer, who will probably be handled by Rizer and Edwards, said, adding that manufacture of the pipe will probably be completed by May 1.

The commissioner said the Baltimore engineering firm of Whitman, Regardt and Associates, which handled part of the preliminary surveys for the proposed cross-country overhead bridge here, is preparing plans to install the same type of water line in Baltimore. He added that the same type is now being installed at Johnston, Pa.

Laying of pipe in Roanoke was started December 1 and is expected to be completed by June, Edwards said, adding that manufacture of the pipe will probably be completed by May 1.

Stephen Goggin Killed in Crash

Word was received here late last night of the death of Master Sgt. Stephen M. Goggin, Jr., 36, son of S. M. Goggin, 407 Washington street, who was instantly killed in the crash of a B-29 Superfortress near Kirtland field, Albuquerque, N. M., Thursday afternoon.

The telegram from the commanding officer at the field, where Master Sgt. Goggin was stationed, said that the body was not recovered until yesterday afternoon.

No details of the accident are available. The body will be sent to Roanoke, Va., for burial.

Master Sgt. Goggin, a native of Roanoke, had been in the army since 1936. He returned from England last July, after serving nineteen months in a ground crew outfit of the Eighth Air Force. After spending a ninety-day furlough here, he re-enlisted and was assigned to Kirtland field.

A brother, Everett, a member of the merchant marine, was lost at sea three years ago.

Master Sgt. Goggin's wife Mrs. Helen Krel Goggin, Rapid City, S. D., died in February, 1945. They had no children.

Besides his father, he is survived by one sister, Mrs. Kathryn Carson, at home; and two brothers, W. Roy Goggin, Roanoke; and Julian B. Goggin, 724 Frederick street.

Former Postoffice Clerks Are Discharged

Two clerks of the local postoffice have been discharged from the army and are indicated at the postoffice that both of the young men are expected to return to their pre-war jobs soon.

Richard C. Dyche, 637 North Centre street, was discharged this week at Fort Hancock, N. Y. He is a mail clerk in the mailing division here.

George Statler, 818 Gephart drive, a clerk in the registry division, was discharged February 6, after twenty-six months service with the army's postal unit in England. He entered the army April 15, 1943.

The 155 guests who attended the father-son dinner of the Men's Bible Class of Grace Methodist Church Thursday night heard an address entitled "Youth's Rights in a Democracy" by Victor D. Heisey, principal of Fort Hill high school.

The speaker stressed five chief points in pointing out that youth has certain rights to which they are entitled as well as adults. The latter, for example, have the right to vote, a right to which youth is entitled, Heisey said.

Therights of youth as explained by the speaker are:

- 1—The right to sound health based on correct hygiene, both physical and mental.
- 2—The right to a happy, constructive home life.
- 3—The right to happiness based on a joyful play life and meaningful recreational activities.
- 4—The right to a vivid character outlook based on sound religious construction.
- 5—The right to a good education.

The Rev. A. L. Hunter gave the invocation at the dinner and John Park the address of welcome. Group singing was conducted by James Stevenson followed by selections by the quartet of the Men's Bible Class and a baritone solo by Joe Trenton, accompanied by Perry Rosenmerkle. The Rev. Mr. Hunter gave the benediction.

DOKK Initiates 23 Candidates At Ceremonial

Earl C. Wolven and Senator Robert B. Kimble Are Principal Speakers

An address by Earl Carney Wolven, Selbyville, Del., district deputy imperial prince, was a feature of last night's banquet and spring ceremonial of Wahaba Temple, 237 DOKK, at the LaVale firemen's hall. About 125 attended.

Wolven, who was making his official visitation, told members of organization plans for an educational program and said the motto "Every Pythian a member of the dramatic order" had been adopted.

"This is a big order but I think we can do it," Wolven declared.

Guests sat down to a turkey dinner served by the Ladies Auxiliary of the LaVale Volunteer Firemen's Association. Following the dinner, members were addressed by State Senator Robert B. Kimble, grand chancellor of Maryland. Kimble's son, Robert B. Kimble, Jr., was one of twenty-three to be initiated at the ceremony.

The spring ceremonial, conducted at 8 o'clock, was directed by John N. Miller and J. Walter McKee, McKee, assisted by Arthur Brant, served as master of ceremonies. John C. Fisher, royal viceroy and his divan, were in charge.

Members of temples in Chambersburg, Harrisburg, McKeesport, Pa.; Keyser, Washington, D. C.; and Delaware attended the ceremony.

Officers who participated in last night's affair included McKee, makhanna, C. M. Chilcoat, sahib, Harvey C. Landis, saruk, George Keifer, shiek Herbert P. Sarver, attendant, O. M. Is Taken by Surprise
The officers praised the courage of the sister who was undoubtedly surprised to see them outside the door but did not bat an eyelash and returned, leaving the door ajar.

The waiting officers later learned from the conversation inside the room that the sister had managed to persuade her brother to lie down on the bed.

Both officers charged and tackled the ex-soldier who was taken by surprise and had no chance to use the weapon he was still holding.

Detective Lilya said seventeen shells for the shotgun were in the man's possession when they seized him.

Price of Haircuts And Shaves Will Be Increased

The prices of haircuts and shaves will be boosted April 1 in Cumberland if Indianapolis, Ind., national officials go along with the proposal of Local No. 314, Journeymen Barbers' International Union. Local barbers are confident that the international will go along with the proposal.

At a recent meeting of the local it was decided to hike prices the price of haircuts from 65 to 75 cents while shaves will be raised from 40 to 50 cents.

Cost of materials increasing in recent years and the cost of living were advanced by the barbers as the chief reasons for the price increases. Shops will continue to close this Wednesday afternoon and will be open from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. daily except Saturday when the shops close at 7 p. m.

Edgar Carson, Parsons; and Mrs. Beatrice Close, St. George.

Funeral services will be held Sunday at 2 p. m. at the Minear funeral home, with the Rev. I. E. Lewis, retired Methodist minister, officiating. Interment will be in Holly Meadows cemetery near Parsons.

Former Soldier Is Disarmed By City Police

A former soldier, who police said had been drinking and armed himself with a double-barreled shotgun at his home, was arrested yesterday by city police early yesterday morning. County authorities said the man is being "held for examination" in the county jail.

He was arrested yesterday morning at 1:37 o'clock by Lt. James E. Van and Detectives Edwin R. Lilya and Thomas J. See.

Detective Lilya said Officer John C. Powers and C. W. Thompson were dispatched to a North Centre street home shortly before midnight Thursday after members of the family called police and reported the local man was armed with the shotgun.

The ex-soldier, police said, had been drinking heavily and was in an upstairs back bedroom when the officers arrived.

Points Shotgun
Detective Lilya said the former serviceman pointed the shotgun at Officer Powers and that all efforts to persuade him to relinquish the weapon and return to bed were unavailing.

The armed man shot several times through the door of the bedroom in which he barricaded himself. Detective Lilya said, after the home, the ex-soldier was still in the room when officers returned to police headquarters in the belief that the armed man would quiet down.

However, at 1:10 a. m., police said, the family called again, and insisted that the man be taken away.

When the officers arrived at the home, the ex-soldier was still in the bedroom but his sister was inside trying to persuade him to give her the weapon and go to sleep.

Detective Lilya said he and Lt. Van hid in a darkened room outside the bedroom in the hope that they might have an opportunity to rush the man and disarm him.

The sister, Detective Lilya said, tried to persuade the man that there were no police in the home and opened the door of the bedroom to convince him.

Boy Escapes Serious Injury when Arm
Is Caught in Wringer

Robert Lee Erickson, 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Erickson, 138 Elder street, was treated in Memorial hospital yesterday at 4:30 p. m. for a bruised right arm. Attachments were told the child's arm was caught in the wringer of an electric washer.

Christine Windish, 12, Union Grove, was treated in Allegheny hospital yesterday morning for an injury of the fourth finger of the right hand suffered, attachments were told, she swallowed a quantity of disinfectant, was in a "good" condition last evening.

Commissioners Asked To Pick Board Members

Term of Two Men Will Expire May 31; Other Business Transacted

The board of county commissioners yesterday received a communication from J. Milton Patterson, director of the state department of public welfare, in which he asked the board members to be thinking about candidates for appointment to the welfare board.

Patterson said that the terms of two members will expire May 31 but pointed out that both C. William Gilchrist and Robert W. Young are eligible for reappointment at this time, they having been appointed to fill the unexpired terms of others.

The law provides that "all appointments shall be for six year terms. Upon the expiration of any term, the appointee shall be ineligible for reappointment to a second term immediately succeeding the first."

Patterson told the commissioners, "You know the quality of people that we want on our boards, and we ask you to send us the names of people who are eligible for appointment under our regulations, so that we can assemble the material and present it to the state board in time to have the appointment completed around May 31. Izat said that the roof above the third floor offices of County Agent R. F. McHenry has been in bad condition for several months and that damage is caused after rains and snowfall.

Izat also proposed that the interior of the first floor of the court house be painted. The third floor was painted last year and it was suggested that the second floor be painted next year.

Installation of drinking fountains on each floor of the court house was proposed by Izat who said that the present fountains are unsatisfactory and expensive to maintain.

The campaign closing date has been officially set for Monday at 6:30 p. m. when all workers are expected to submit their final reports at the dinner meeting to be held in Central YMCA. The price of the dinner is seventy-five cents per person, and workers who expect to attend should telephone campaign headquarters 3993, before Monday noon and make reservations.

A total of $15,393.50 is the balance needed to reach the campaign goal in the county.

The caller, who asked that his name be withheld, pointed out that under state law beavers are protected from hunters and trappers but the farmer asserted "if it became known there were beavers on my land, the place would be invaded at night by a bunch of so-called sportsmen who would violate the law and get the animals."

Water Officials, Engineer Inspect Roanoke Pipe Line

Reinforced Concrete Pipe Approved as Best for Auxiliary Line Here

Reinforced concrete pipe now being manufactured and installed to provide an auxiliary water line from a reservoir near Roanoke, Va., to that city, is the best type of pipe which could be used in installing the proposed auxiliary water line from Lake Gordon to Cumberland, Water Commissioner William J. Edwards said yesterday.

Edwards returned yesterday afternoon from Roanoke, where he spent two days inspecting the manufacture and installation of the pipe. He was accompanied by Ralph L. Rizer, city engineer; William H. Marean, Rizer's assistant; and Charles J. Bruce, superintendent of the Elyria Creek Water Company.

After plans for the auxiliary line are completed by Rizer and bids are asked, the chief obstacle to starting the project will be the present "confused state of the market for building materials," Edwards said.

Advantages Cited
The water commissioner said that 40,000 feet of thirty-six inch pipe are being installed in the Roanoke project, while 41,000 feet of the thirty-six inch pipe would be needed for the auxiliary water line here.

He asserted that the great advantage in using that type of pipe here is that it can be manufactured and installed "on the spot," and that all local labor would be used in the project, thus decreasing unemployment.

Edwards also said that necessary materials, including sand, cement and stone, could be obtained locally. Sixteen-foot lengths of pipe, each weighing four and a half tons, would be used.

The commissioner pointed out that the pipe is essentially the same type as that used in laying the main thirty-six inch water line from Lake Gordon to the city approximately twenty-five years ago. Modern improvements to the pipe have been made since that time, including an improved joint connecting length of pipe; increasing each length from 12 to 16 feet, making it possible to lay pipe more quickly; and increasing the strength of the pipe.

Total cost of the Roanoke project is estimated at $750,000, which has also been estimated as the cost of installing auxiliary water line here, Edwards said. He added that two enabling acts, one passed in the state legislature in 1941 and the other at a special legislative session last November, provide for the issuance of $450,000 in bonds to finance the local project.

The commissioner said virtually all of the rights of way needed for the auxiliary water line have been secured. When the auxiliary line here is completed, the main water line will come down the valley of Elyria creek to the state line, and will roughly parallel Bedford road to the city. The main water line comes to Nave's crossroad and roughly parallels the Baltimore pike to Cumberland.

Although the Chicago engineering firm of Alvord, Burdick and Howson is handling the Roanoke project, Edwards said it is expected that no consulting engineers will be called in on the auxiliary line here, since the work will probably be handled by Rizer, who made necessary plans for the main water line when it was started in 1919.

The commissioner said the Baltimore engineering firm of Whitman, Reardon and Associates, which handled part of the preliminary surveys for the proposed cross-town overhead bridge here, is preparing plans to install the same type of water line in Baltimore. He added that the same type is now being installed at Johnstown, Pa.

Laying of pipe in Roanoke was started December 1 and is expected to be completed by June, Edwards said, adding that manufacture of the pipe will probably be completed by May 1.

A former soldier, who police said had been drinking and armed himself with a double-barreled shotgun at his home, was arrested yesterday by city police early yesterday morning. County authorities said the man is being "held for examination" in the county jail.

He was arrested yesterday morning at 1:57 o'clock by Lt. James E. Van and Detectives Edwin R. Lilya and Thomas J. See.

Detective Lilya said Officer John G. Powers and C. W. Thompson were dispatched to a North Centre street home shortly before midnight Thursday after members of the family called police and reported the local man was armed with the shotgun.

The ex-soldier, police said, had been drinking heavily and was in an upstairs back bedroom when the officers arrived.

Points Shotgun

However, at 1:10 a. m., police said, the family called again, and insisted that the man be taken away.

When the officers arrived at the home, the ex-soldier was still in the bedroom but his sister was inside trying to persuade him to give her the weapon and go to sleep.

Detective Lilya said he and Lt. Van hid in a darkened room outside the bedroom in the hope that they might have an opportunity to rush the man and disarm him.

Flood Control Is Favored by Four Council Nominees

Opinions of Other Candidates Will Be Published Early Next Week

Four councilmanic candidates yesterday lined up solidly behind the existing flood control program for Cumberland and the plan for the expansion of the city water system when questioned by News reporters. The two questions asked are:

- 1.—Are you in favor of the existing flood control program worked out over a number of years by the army engineers?
- 2.—Do you favor the plan which has been adopted for expansion of the city water system?

Commissioner William J. Edwards stated that he is "completely in favor of the flood control program." Asked whether he favored the plan for the expansion of the city water system, Edwards replied, "I would not have worked on the scheme for my past eight years in office if I did not favor it. I have just returned from a trip to Roanoke, Va., where we inspected a type of concrete pipe to decide whether it is suitable for use in the proposed auxiliary water line from Lake Gordon to the city. That in itself shows that I approve the plan."

Luther Hutter, North End merchant nominated for the council, said "I believe that the present flood control plan is as good as we can hope to get while it is expensive it is being worked out over a period of years."

Hutter said he was "wholeheartedly in favor of the plan to expand the city water system. Our one line is now carrying more than a capacity load, in my opinion. Another line is necessary if Cumberland is to have future growth and progress."

Asked his opinion in regard to the flood control program, Clifton E. Fuller replied, "I am completely in favor of flood prevention. We should have something to eliminate floods."

On the question pertaining to expansion of the city water system, Fuller stated, "We should have an auxiliary line. It would be of benefit to the city."

William V. Keegan, another councilmanic nominee, referred a reporter to his political advertisement published in the form of a cartoon prior to the primary election for his answer to the question on flood control.

The cartoon shows flood waters about the entrance to Keegan's North Mechanic street tavern with Keegan remarking, "I don't want this to happen." A note points out, "On flood control he has reason to be interested."

Asked about expansion of the water system, Keegan stated, "As far as Cumberland is concerned, I don't care how small the industry is, it should have water. I don't care how far they expand the water supply."

Statements by four additional council candidates on these two questions will be published in the News the first part of next week.
